Erasmus+ at your Fingertips!

Higher Education Study Mobility

Would you like to step out of your comfort zone? Learn new skills? Discover new places, people as well as new things about yourself? Then you should consider an Erasmus+ experience abroad, just like Martina Caironi from Italy did!

Watch the video

Studying abroad is a core component of Erasmus+ and for good reason! Participating in an Erasmus+ mobility is proven to be of great impact on participants' job prospects and helps them discover their ideal career path. It gives you the opportunity to improve not only

Apply to the host institution

Submit an application to your host institution.

Please note that nomination does not necessarily mean admission to the host institution. After nomination by your home institution, you need to formally apply to the host institution for your study mobility period. Typically, this can be done electronically via an online application procedure where you will fill in the application documents provided by the host institution.

You don't need to pack that much!

When going on your exchange you really don't need to pack that much, especially if you are living in dorms. I took tons of textbooks and clothes I never used and regretted it when I wanted to go interrrailing afterwards and had to carry it all on my back for a week! Take 10 days of clothes maximum and your laptop. If you desperately want some books get an ereader. Read into lightweight backpacking to help. The only good thing to come from taking so much is that now I'm a confirmed handluggage only traveller.
