Compulsory mobility documents

1. Declaration of Honour: Signed by the students. With this document, the end beneficiary confirms that he/she has received the funding and will use it appropriately and, if the stay is discontinued, will make a reimbursement.
2. Learning Agreement: Agreement among students, home and host university. Essential and integral part of the mobility, ensures accreditation of the study achievements made abroad.
3. Final Report: Duty of the end beneficiaries to submit report to the home university after the end of the period spent abroad. Provides information about the quality and experiences and is used for statistical purposes. Own format must contain all information requested in the Movetia template.

The Certificate of Attendance can be used as a mobility document.

Special needs

Universities must ensure that people with physical, psychological or health difficulties can also take part. For this, additional funding can be applied for.
